Zeitgeist is a mind heist – venus project is a scam ?

Just another WordPress.com weblog

Zeitgeist Movement entrance test results

The test appears to be rigged no matter how you take it and answer the scores fluctuate and are not correct. It is simply a way to reduce people from quickly entering.

See here for a discussion on it.

<http://conspiracyscience.com/forums/topic/answers-to-zeitgeist-test>

Also here is a cheat sheet for anyone wanting quick entry and to test the claims of conspiracy science members:

<http://www.aaronmhatch.com/zeitgeist.html>

In the view of the movement, technological tools are considered:

X Extensions of the human being's performance

Attributes of progress

Destructive to the environment

Neutral to the labor market

Who made the following statement: "Greed and Competition are not the result of immutable human temperament...greed and fear of scarcity are in fact being continuously created and amplified as a direct result of the kind of money we are using... We can produce more than enough food to feed everybody...but there is clearly not enough money to pay for it all. The scarcity is in our national currencies. In fact, the job of the central banks is to create and maintain that currency scarcity. The direct consequence is that we have to fight with each other in order to survive."

Milton Friedman

John Maynard Keynes

Jacque Fresco

X Bernard Lietaer

The role of people in a monetary system can be broken into the following categories:

X Employee, Consumer, Employer

Laborer, Investor, Producer

Owner, Slave, Executioner

Wage Earner, Corporation, Investor

The most basic fundamental building blocks of human/social survival are:

X Energy, raw materials, food/air/water
Energy, education, social capital
Raw materials, labor, education
God, money, flags

Based on current studies, increased income inequality is linked to:

Increased social capital
X Increased crime
Decreased vanity
Decreased consumption

The Venus Project, as an idea in its most simplistic form, represents:

The application of collectivism for social operation
A socialist solution to environmental and social problems
A technocracy based method of global Management
X The application of the scientific method for social concern

It is suggested that an efficient housing structure of the future be made of:

Glass and steel
Wood frames
X Pre-stressed concrete
Steel and heat concentrators

When it comes to the financial system, the movement, in the long term, advocates:

financial reform by way of removing Central Banks
X the removal of money itself as a means of exchange removal of interest
going back to a gold or silver standard

Most “crimes” in the world are a consequence of:

Genetic dispositions

X Monetary deprivation

Social misunderstanding

Ego

In the process of transitioning to a RBE, which is the most important first step:

Survey social needs

Optimize production/distribution methods

X Survey the planetary resources

Automate labor

The entire global market system is most dependent on the following attribute to sustain economic growth:

Employment

Money creation

X Cyclical consumption

Interest rates

A resource-based economy is best defined as:

A NWO trick to reduce the population

X A social system designed to manage resources, automate production/distribution and remove money and trade

A theory dealing with energy distribution through credits

A social system based on no money, with a strict, equal amount of resources given to citizens

In the view of the movement, the incentive to acquire money results in:

X Corruption more than contributions to social progress

Social progress and creativity

Stock market manipulation

Material progress but spiritual distortion

When social values are not in tandem with progressive technological changes, this is termed:

X Culture lag

Traditional paralysis

Luddite demeanor

Traditional flux

In a resource-based economy, scarcity will be overcome through:

Substitutions, energy certificates

Renewable energies and mandatory labor

X Technological ingenuity, substitutions, waste reduction & conservation

Legal limits on consumption and waste reduction

Virtually all money in the American economy and most economies in the world is generated:

X Out of debt, through loans

Out of a gold standard

By government request

Out of a silver standard

What is the main, core reason why the Venus Project's resource-based economy is needed?

Social values are too distorted and need renovation.

X Our current system is simply unsustainable.

Money will result in growing elitism and stratification.

Poverty is growing exponentially.

Which term below best completes the following statement: "Profit based shortcuts in production, coupled with the deliberate withholding of efficiency in the creation of a given product, is known as _____.”

Production corruption

X Planned obsolescence

Product duplication protocol

Marketing magnification

Abundance, sustainability and efficiency are _____.

impossible in a world bound by natural law.

ideal attributes of a socialistic society.

required for survival in a monetary system.

X the enemies of profit.

In regard to religious traditions in a resource-based economy:

X Everyone is free to practice.

It is regulated through a “free speech agency.”

It is outlawed.

It is mandatory to worship the sun god Horus.

40% of the annual deaths worldwide are caused by:

Disease and malnutrition

War, poverty and genocide

X Water, air and soil pollution

GMO foods

In a resource-based economy, what kind of theory best describes the total approach to Earth management?

Entropy

Thermodynamics

Nonlinear dynamics

X Systems

The basic approach to reducing aberrant human behavior in a resource-based economy is:

Reeducation through mandatory schools

Creating community counsels for treatment

Full frontal lobotomies

X Adjusting the environment so such motivations do not materialize

In order to relieve land based population pressures, a RBE would:

Build 4 mile high buildings

Move into outer space

X Extend to cities in the sea

Have a one child policy

When considering a transition from the current society to a resource-based economy, the most important initial issue is:

Education

X Governmental action

Renewable energies

Ethical outreach

In a resource-based economy the resources of the planet are deemed:

Universally related by systems theory

Tools for social creation

X Common heritage of all the world's people

Expressions of symbiotic relationships

The essential role of the Interdisciplinary Teams in a resource-based economy is:

X To manage society's technical operations

To serve as the power establishment

To control the world
To keep the AI system up to date

Advanced maglev technology is documented to use:

- Less than 5% of the energy for plane travel
- X Less than 2% of the energy for plane travel
- Less than 20% of the energy for plane travel
- Less than 1% of the energy for plane travel

A key attribute in city design within a resource-based economy is:

- Embedding all energy harnessing within
- Making transport integrated, reducing automobiles
- Growing all food locally, when possible
- X All of the above

Who made the following statement: “The role of humans as the most important factor of production is bound to diminish in the same way that the role of horses in agricultural production was first diminished and then eliminated by the introduction of tractors.”

- Albert Einstein
- Buckminster Fuller
- Roxanne Meadows
- X Wassily Leontief

Which technology will likely make the commercial airplane obsolete?

- Lightwave auto-tram
- Conveyers
- Human teleport
- X Maglev trains

From the view of the Movement, the monetary system is basically:

A tool of plutocracy

Annoying

In need of reform

X Obsolete

A central demand of the scientific method is:

Empirical Referents

X Experimentation

Testing

Intuition

Without a monetary system, which of the following will likely no longer exist?

X Planned obsolescence

High quality goods

Labor

Freedom

The true threats to humanity are:

Terrorists

Oligarchs and Money

Satan

X Those common to every human being

Which set of alternative energies is TZM/VP most interested in?

Solar, wind, biomass, tidal, wave

Solar, clean coal, wind, geothermal

Biomass, solar, tidal, wave

X Solar, wave, wind, geothermal, tidal

A true democracy is:

A mythological idea

The election of the best person for the job

Dependent on ethics and culture

X The election of ideas themselves

What is the basic safeguard against abuse in a resource-based economy?

Everyone is microchipped and tracked.

X Once the need for money is surpassed, there will be little inherent reward in abuse.

People will be reeducated if they do not comply.

Genetic modification

A central problem(s) with the monetary system is that:

Problems and scarcity equals profit.

Many forms of labor have no value to true social contributions.

The incentive for money leads to corruption.

X All of the above

The free market system has a natural propensity for:

X Monopoly and cartel

Division of labor

Equality and balance

Civil unrest

The true motivation for the act of War is:

Revenge – industrial profit – spreading of ideologies

X Industrial profit – resource acquisition – geopolitical alignment

Resource acquisition – spreading of ideologies – geopolitical alignment

Dispute resolution – spreading of ideologies – industrial profit

Which form of energy has been denoted by MIT to have a potential of 2000 ZJ of power?

X Geothermal

Solar

Wind

Wave

The boom and bust cycle of an economy is caused essentially by:

X The amount of money entering and leaving the economy's money supply

Loss of jobs

Interest rate fluctuation

Inflation and depreciation

Social design must be most directly correlated to:

The state of population growth

The opinions of the population

X The carrying capacity of the Earth

The rate of technological change

Which of the following is most responsible for large social changes:

Elections of competent people

Protest movements

X Biosocial pressures

War

A resource-based economy, by definition, would need to be:

- X Global
- Socialistic
- Free of crime
- A circular city

In J. Fresco's circular city design, the outer perimeter is the:

- Residential belt
- Agricultural belt
- Production belt
- X Recreational belt

In the view of the movement, today's legal system is best described as:

- An ideological dead end
- A system of monetary rule
- A failed idea
- X Patchwork—not addressing root causes

Based on the history of mechanization, it is axiomatic to say that:

- Mechanization is more productive than human labor overall
- Mechanization can free humanity from stressful labor
- Mechanization can be the “emancipation proclamation for human kind”
- X All of the above

Dynamic equilibrium occurs when:

- X Two or more opposing process proceed at the same rate.
- Balances occur between similar processes

Homeostasis is achieved
Systems theory is applied

In the America economy (and most others), there is always more outstanding debt than money in existence. This is largely due to:

Boom and bust cycle
Constant contraction
X Interest charged for loans
Fiat basis of money

The progression of technology appears to be growing at a:

Linear rate
Exponential rate
X Geometric rate
All of the above

The idea/necessity of “property” comes from:

Capitalism
X Scarcity
Democracy
Ego

True security comes from:

Shared values
Police and prisons
X Solving social problems
Economic balance

Technological unemployment is defined as:

X Displacement of human labor by machines

Displacement of human labor by systems theory

Displacement of human labor by failed technological systems

Displacement of human labor by androids

Eco World Content From Across
The Internet.

1. If they plan to shove this test on everyone, they need to make everyone take it, no matter how long they have been there – if they don’t, then this is textbook favoritism.

Me Taking The Quiz:

What’s the difference between “attributes of progress” and “extensions of the human being’s performance”?

2.

If he can't even quote people right, then people are bound to miss this one:

<http://truth11.com/2009/04/06/quote-greed-and-competition-bernard-lietaer-founder-of-the-eu-currency-system>

3.

“Owner, Slave, Executioner?” Really? That’s a fearmongering answer, I would have chosen “Employee, Consumer, Employer” since he talks about the cyclical consumption.

4.

So much for education. But then again, some would get the “re-education” knee-jerk reaction probably.

5.

This falls in a gray area to me, especially when he tries to picture a WW3 as a “real war”, not according the answer here. Look at the end of the “Who Is Peter Joseph” interview and you’ll see what I mean. Back in the Rome days, Romans use to conquer other countries to spread their ideologies, not just for profit. So this is kind of misleading. Even John Perkins makes this brief point in Zeitgeist: Addendum as he talks about “corporatocracy” ironically.

6.

I would agree here.

7.

Alrighty then.

8.

Okay, but I do see signs of collectivism though.

9.

Wait... Isn't the Venus Project made out of steel and concrete? I'm sure I read that somewhere. Correct me if I'm wrong please.

10.

Yeah, a Global Resource Based Economy. Got it.

11.

I thought it was because of the monetary system? So confused... I would have picked “ego” if it said “hate crimes”. But not “most crimes”.

12.

Aren't planetary resources "social needs"?

13.

And around we go.

14.

What's the difference between the 2nd and the 4th? And what about abundance? Is this a NWO trick?

15.

At least it says "more than" oppose to complete corruption.

16.

Yes, we're going to see a lot of culture problems and not everything is technical.

17.

I would have got this right.

18.

I would get this right too.

19.

I would have went for the first one since the Venus Project talks about redesigning culture. It's on their website if you don't believe me.

20.

I would have picked "planned obsolescence".

21.

Right from Zeitgeist: Addendum.

22.

I like this answer but they still put out an atheist vibe therefore "practicing religions" can easily be discouraged and people can look at each other deeming each other "socially offensive". I still like the answer though.

23.

It depends how that money is entering and leaving, I'm not sure about that one.

24.

I would have said from disease and malnutrition since 34,000 children die a day due to this like it says in Zeitgeist: Addendum in the beginning of the film.

25.

The first and third can sound the same, but I would have chosen the third one myself.

26.

Yes, systematic approach.

27.

The second answer sounds logical too.

28.

Cities in the sea would be awesome. I guess people should go on cruise ships and get a feel for it first.

29.

I would have said all the above.

30.

Isn't protesting making biosocial pressure? This is confusing, activism makes biosocial pressure I would think. Isn't this the activist arm for the Venus Project?

31.

Yes, global, but it should be more focused on a local level. Saying RBGE is arrogant to me. People should be able to try out other alternatives as well during the transition.

32.

Yes, I'm familiar with that wording.

33.

I agree, but they fail in this area now and don't even have qualified moderators. So yeah...

34.

I would have done research on that myself.

35.

I'm confused, Jacque Fresco has car models but in a RBE society automobiles would be reduced?

36.

Right.

37.

Never heard of this guy and the quote is accurate.

38.

I wonder how ET3 is doing now.

39.

Abolish away.

40.

Correct, but try to trademark "RBE". Hypocrisy.

41.

Indeed. Technology is evolving by itself through this process hopefully.

42.

Testing or experimenting, what's the difference?

43.

I would have pick the 2nd answer.

44.

I would have chosen "Planned obsolescence" again. Labor would be reduced, but not completely gone. People will have to maintain machines still I'm sure.

45.

Common indeed.

46.

Sure.

47.

Okay.

48.

I would have chosen this answer.

49.

Yeah, but abuse of power takes place once someone has power in general given with perks that is not money related, so what do we do about that?

50.

That is the root cause.

51.

I would have said “exponential rate”.

Well, from taking this test, it’s my opinion that they should remove it because they don’t know how to form a test themselves when they pose anti-credentialism. It’s a slap in a face to everyone that takes it. I’m referring to the newcomers and some answers were similar to each other and could mean the same thing.

So it’s a big FAIL in my book and it enforces dogma.

BranManFloMore said this on June 10, 2010 at 9:48 pm | Reply

2. in deed, this “test” is a laughable construct, half of the answers they want you to give are factually wrong, they can’t even be bothered to keep their own facts straight on the test, its a joke.

It was a fine idea, but like everything else about TZM the implementation screams “incompetent losers” far louder than anything else.

prometheuspan said this on June 11, 2010 at 8:53 pm | Reply

- Yeah, it would be nice if they turned this into a “Did you know” type of page, but they can’t even get their answers straight. So yeah... If I confused anyone with the answers and my explanations, I was going by what Aaron did on his website and yes, I do realize he’s editing as they are making more questions and answers, but what I said is suffice.

BranManFloMore said this on June 11, 2010 at 11:26 pm | Reply

3. @prometheuspan

I see, so you're setting the example for the way forward?

"If you don't like how something is done, don't help, don't solve the issues, don't overcome the challenges in doing something well, just dismiss it and deride it because you're better than that"

Hmm, something tells me this will help propagate the status quo more than anything. Sorry.

Joseph Matthew said this on June 15, 2010 at 1:19 pm | Reply

- Something tells me you don't know his background to begin with.

Actually, he has made a lot of contributions in RBEF than you can fathom and what have you done? Just go on blogs that criticize TZM with substance? Oh yeah, you're a real contributor [sarcasm]. Me and him talk about the false & true axioms of the Venus Project, you know- do some actual research.

BranManFloMore said this on June 15, 2010 at 1:42 pm | Reply

4. That's true Bran all Joseph does is hunt down people who disagree with TZM and TVP and he then proceeds to troll their pages and report back to the forum with quotes of his replies, and links to get his members to spam them.

That's what he considers doing his duty for TZM goals. He is going to achieve what exactly by doing this? It certainly will not be bringing about an RBE and it certainly is not helping remove the us vs them mentality TZM has.

anticultist said this on June 15, 2010 at 1:53 pm | Reply

5. Wow, you guys really are on the ball. What's fun is that you CLAIM to know my efforts, without any information or evidence to what I do or do not do.

That said, I can speak of prometheus' efforts, because he's adamant about showing himself online via RBEF, he obviously believes that splintering off (RBEF) before these ideas are even off the ground is going to somehow help more hurt, and help more than solving issues within the singular movement.

I've done my research, and it comes back to this: We're stronger together.

It's the whiney few who think "if it's not 'their plan', it's not good enough" and so work to destroy the good effort of others.

Tell me I'm wrong about this and show just how ridiculous you guys really are.

Joseph Matthew said this on June 15, 2010 at 2:09 pm | Reply

- The evidence has already been given about you in the past, google your name and tzm or tvp and all the places you have spammed can be found. As well as goto the tzm forum and search your name and you can find all the threads you have created where you have pointed to your spam. Its not difficult to see you are just an internet shit sniffer.

anticultist said this on June 15, 2010 at 2:13 pm | Reply

- Yes, because obviously google knows all. The best part is that you think this logic is sound, when it's just tragically misguided.

In-fighting destroys movements. You are working hard to ensure that. You do this, from all evidence on this blog, because you're immature (shit sniffer?) and have no idea how to tackle such issues. Sorry for being blunt, but someone needs to tell you this.

It's just sad (and let's try to use our adult words from now on ok?)

Joseph Matthew said this on June 15, 2010 at 2:16 pm

- Look it is clear from your reply you are trying to avoid being called out for what you are and what you do in the name of your cult. You just harass people in threads you do not like talking about your TZM group.

Trying to make a pathetic attempt at discrediting a google search on you is quite simply funny. Anyone can search you out and find the evidence on your us vs them antagonising tactics.

You really are not helping your movement take it from me, I am being honest with you. You are driving a steak between people and it, if I was Peter I would of told you to quit chasing people down and quit posting about them on the forum by now.

You have no clue about what is good for the movement because all you like to do is argue online with people who have points about your movement.

You do nothing.

anticultist said this on June 15, 2010 at 2:21 pm

- “In-fighting destroys movements.”

TZM is pushing people out and causing the infighting, so you can’t guilt-trip us with that.

“You are working hard to ensure that.”

No, he’s just exposing TZM for not being professional at all and them being questionable on many levels.

“You do this, from all evidence on this blog, because you’re immature (shit sniffer?) and have no idea how to tackle such issues.”

The information is an overdose and he has done the research, it’s time to evolve and stop being immature yourself.

“Sorry for being blunt, but someone needs to tell you this.”

You’re not that special to tell us anything.

“It’s just sad (and let’s try to use our adult words from now on ok?)”

You don’t act like an adult yourself, so don’t tell us how we should act.

BranManFloMore said this on June 15, 2010 at 2:33 pm

- Pot meet kettle? It’s like you’re not even trying to manage your own hypocrisies.

I love how you call posting on a blog that exists to have people post different views as “harassing”, yet you yourself do the same. Wonder what word you use when it’s you doing it?

Just because you use a word or make a claim Anticultist, doesn’t make it truth. I keep trying to think you’re better than this, but then you keep proving me wrong.

As for all your other claims, please look in the mirror. What you're doing is called "projecting" by psychiatrists.

Try to remember, I'm not the one with the blog that exists solely to tear down the good efforts of others.

Good luck to you. If you can be honest with yourself, you're going to need it!

Joseph Matthew said this on June 15, 2010 at 2:46 pm

- There is nothing hypocritical here I do not post on their forum and harass them I stay away and talk on forums and blogs that have nothing to do with TZM they are just places for people to discuss the flaws and inaccuracies of the movement. You just don't like it and want it to go away.

You are the one projecting, I am just presenting. By the way don't try and educate me on psychiatry I have already provided a neat little psychological analysis of the conspiracy theorists mind set, which is what TZM is comprised of.

By the way this blog does not exist for TZM pro views, you got that all wrong, we have been through this before and that retard brain of yours hasn't soaked it up.

This blog is for anti TZM views, get it straight.

anticultist said this on June 15, 2010 at 2:50 pm

- I was asking what your efforts are and you fail to answer that question. So now, I'm forced to assume you do nothing else. I've done my research and it comes back to this: why work with abusive people that aren't that intelligent?

When I criticize TZM, I'm not destroying the RBE idea in general — if that was the case — I would have not bothered joining up at RBEF.

So yeah, you're wrong about this and your comments are ridiculous, not ours. I've responded to your comments here on this webpage before and you're not that bright.

BranManFloMore said this on June 15, 2010 at 2:22 pm | Reply

- I choose not to answer your question, because it is not relevant (my choice) and I won't be sucked in to your web of fear &

negativity. I know what I'm doing... I wish you understood better what you're doing.

Remember, I'm not the one making blogs intended to try to tear the good efforts of others down. Notice how there are no anti-RBEF blogs? Think about it.

Basically you say "It's time to jump ship because a few bad apples spoil the barrel" and it's just silly.

The only thing you're showing by splintering off (and this goes for all the RBEF guys) is your own limitations in communicating effectively. The very same problems you take with you to the next splinter group. Instead of working against TZM / TVP, suggest you solve those communication problems and you won't have to deride TZM / TVP to make yourselves feel better.

BranMan, am sorry that you left, but if you think these ideas are going to succeed without our first becoming experts in communication, forgiveness, and compassion, you are indeed mistaken.

If you think these ideas are going to succeed because every time things don't go to your ideal, you splinter off and join some other effort (with the same extant issues), you're mistaken.

The most ridiculous thing is that this blog even exists. It's like kids who didn't get a cookie before their dinner saying how mom's a monster.

But keep it up, I say; from all measurable evidence, your ridiculous hypocrisy is helping us get more members. When you grow up and realize how the dynamics to these challenging efforts actually work, you're welcome to come back and help.

Joseph Matthew said this on June 15, 2010 at 2:37 pm

- There are no anti RBEF blogs because RBEF is leaderless and is group orientated and democratic unlike TZM.

You choose not to answer because you can not answer, since you have not done anything constructive other than make posts on anti TZM forums and blogs.

Speaking of ineffective communication one only has to take a look on the TZM forum and the evidence of that is everywhere. You should solve your own communication problems before you advise others to fix theirs otherwise its just hypocrisy and noone is listening to that.

The ridiculous thing is that TZM made this blog exist in the first place, they said and I quote "If you want to disagree with us and wont work with us take your opininons elsewhere and voice them". So if you want to blame anyone for its existance take it up with your leadership, it is because they had the inability to deal with questions and points that discussed matters they would rather the membership were unaware of that we are here doing it. That is what is called avoiding the issues and pushing people away, also called poor communication on their part.

Grow up? What are you some kind of father figure to everyone now ? please go and assess your own shortcomings and idiocy because you are no adult.

anticultist said this on June 15, 2010 at 2:46 pm

- “I choose not to answer your question, because it is not relevant (my choice) and I won’t be sucked in to your web of fear & negativity.”

You questioned ProMeTheUsPan contributions, so I thought I should put you on the spot- so it was relevant rather you liked the negativity/fear or not.

“I know what I’m doing... I wish you understood better what you’re doing.”

You don’t know what you are doing, seriously.

“Remember, I’m not the one making blogs intended to try to tear the good efforts of others down.”

What efforts besides promotion? The only efforts I see are from the people that went independent.

“Notice how there are no anti-RBEF blogs? Think about it.”

Because we know what we are doing and the Venus Project doesn’t? I know, it’s sad but here we are.

“Basically you say “It’s time to jump ship because a few bad apples spoil the barrel” and it’s just silly.”

People branch out, it’s natural- it’s not “just silly”.

“The only thing you’re showing by splintering off (and this goes for all the RBEF guys) is your own limitations in communicating effectively.”

You’re talking to someone that use to be a COMMUNICATION MOD in TZM and I left because TZM as a whole had bad communication skills and it still continues to show to this day.

“The very same problems you take with you to the next splinter group. Instead of working against TZM / TVP, suggest you solve those communication problems and you won’t have to deride TZM / TVP to make yourselves feel better.”

I’m not working with or against them, we’re independent. What do you not understand about that?

“BranMan, am sorry that you left, but if you think these ideas are going to succeed without our first becoming experts in communication, forgiveness, and compassion, you are indeed mistaken.”

TZM lack everything mentioned, so TZM will most likely fail in that aspect.

“If you think these ideas are going to succeed because every time things don’t go to your ideal, you splinter off and join some other effort (with the same extant issues), you’re mistaken.”

Branching off is not an immature thing to do, trust me- I took a lot of mental abuse in TZM before I decided to bounce. It wasn’t just one thing that made me pack my bags.

“The most ridiculous thing is that this blog even exists.”

The most ridiculous thing is that you post here as if you know what you are talking about.

Bad analogy.

“But keep it up, I say; from all measurable evidence, your ridiculous hypocrisy is helping us get more members.”

Do you just throw in random words to come off intelligent? Because that sentence didn’t make sense at all. TZM is filled with hypocrisy and empty rhetoric, so don’t throw that at us.

“When you grow up and realize how the dynamics to these challenging efforts actually work, you’re welcome to come back and help.”

When you realize that TZM is nothing but the advertisement arm for their own films, we’ll welcome you in RBOSE and RBEF.

6. “he only thing you’re showing by splintering off (and this goes for all the RBEF guys) is your own limitations in communicating effectively.”

No. VTV and Thunder and azzie and et all are evil people, and working with them is a waste of time and energy.

It is not our fault that this is so; all we are doing is pointing out what is real.

The fault does not lie with us, it lies with them.

“The very same problems you take with you to the next splinter group.”

The problems are not ours, they belong to the abusive people at TVP/TZM.

“Instead of working against TZM / TVP, suggest you solve those communication problems”

I was banned for trying to help them with those problems, and for pointing out that VTV was flagrantly breaking the rules by attacking “Jeremy.”

They are evil people, and they can’t and won’t be helped.

“and you won’t have to deride TZM / TVP to make yourselves feel better.”

Its not about making ourselves feel better. Its about telling the truth to the public about an evil organization.

“BranMan, am sorry that you left, but if you think these ideas are going to succeed without our first becoming experts in communication, forgiveness, and compassion,”

Hes far advanced ahead of most people on all those counts.

” you are indeed mistaken.

If you think these ideas are going to succeed because every time things don’t go to your ideal,” again, we are not at fault here, TZM/TVP is.

These are not our ideals, they are the facts of reality objectively.

“you splinter off and join some other effort (with the same extant issues),”

Those issues are not problems at RBEF.

They could be but I am slowly working on a solid metaprocess.

” you’re mistaken.

The most ridiculous thing is that this blog even exists. It’s like kids who didn’t get a cookie before their dinner saying how mom’s a monster.”

Thats an ignorant and stupid ad hominem attack without substance or merit.

“But keep it up, I say; from all measurable evidence, your ridiculous hypocrisy is helping us get more members. “

Somehow i doubt that.

“When you grow up and realize how the dynamics to these challenging efforts actually work, you’re welcome to come back and help.”

I don’t think they would welcome me in, they would have to actually behave and not be evil basterds, or i’d call them on it again.

Since they are evil basterds and abusive and manipulative people to start with, they aren’t going to change.

The only hope for the movement to succeed is for them to ban the right people- VTV, Thunder, and the abusive and evil basterd mods.

9. Thanks for the answers, I will post this on the Anti Zitzeist sites so the trolls can bypass it. No other forum makes you do tests, this proves the Zitzeist movement and the Penis project hates free speech.

10. I answered every question perfectly, following the exact layout on this site, yet I got 18/20. THIS TEST IS RIGGED!

11. How handy, now if I only wanted to go back :-)

I sometimes think to myself quietly, that if anyone wanted TZM to not succeed, this test would be the way to keep out the hoards of interested people from joining their main forum.

But I'm sure it isn't a conspiracy, its just a case of shooting yourself in the foot, whilst trying to solve the issue of people disagreeing on your site..

Which leads nicely to this point:

- > There are no anti RBEF blogs because RBEF is leaderless and
- > is group orientated and democratic unlike TZM.

I wouldn't describe it as like that, I see leaders, but it is more group orientated, and there is some democracy.

But I'd say its main strength is that it is very hard to get banned there for just disagreeing! (Come to think of it, I'm not sure anyone has been banned for that..)

As such, we can all have a good debate about issues and thrash out ideas until we are all spent, and if those in charge listen, great, if not, oh well.

At least you still have a home to chat to others, to find like minded souls who think the same way you do and pair off with them.

As such, it operates like a hub, rather like the old TVP forums did.
