Zeitgeist is a mind heist – venus project is a scam ?

Just another WordPress.com weblog

I have taken a few months off from the blog and making any posts

I decided to take a few months off from this blog and just leave it stand on the internet and do its thing. I was busy doing my own things in life and getting on with what I actually love doing and applying myself to a few other places on the internet. I pop back here every week or two to check in on the replies people make here, about 80 of them are just sat in my inbox unverified simply because they're a bunch of pro zeitgeisters getting hissy because the blog exists, or repeating already disqualified rationale for zeitgeists existence.

And there they will stay unfortunately for the posters because I am in no mood to rekindle debates about topics and points that have been hammered out over the years by us all.

So I will be continuing on with my life and leaving the posts here open for people to read and its unlikely there will be anything else to say about zeitgeist as its had no impact on anyones lives in the real world, and its neither progressed in its views or actually brought a single thing to fruition other than accrue more willing patsies to spread the word and sell Jacques toys.

For these reasons there is not really a lot more to add to this blog as nothing has happened and probably never will concerning their movement to even report on. So to all the people who posted here regularly take care and perhaps I might come across something worthwhile posting about should they do anything interesting and valuable.

The only thing that will happen shortly is more paraphernalia put out in video format for people to sit at home and entertain their confirmation biases. Perhaps something entertaining can be gotten from that to discuss, until then adios .

1. Take care, friend. It had been a real pleasure reading your blog. And thank you for all the historical information I have learned here.

3. I can imagine the PRO-TZM pressure you were getting too, I can relate. I stopped blogging too for similar reasons, the information that has been put is suffice I think. I could be provoked again though. But hey man, I appreciate what you shared with us and I hope all is well with you.

- Yeah man all is cool just moving on , times are different now and this garbage is garbage.

I'm always around and you know how to contact me, if not just message me here and I can organise a more direct contact.

4. it was a good run and maybe in a few years it will be time to have another pass at it. Or then again maybe tossing negative energy at them is in the long run giving them attention they don't deserve.

either way i for one will make them increasingly irrelevant with the real work i will do.

and i will be referring back to this blog often i imagine when the situation calls for it.

thanks for all the good work and time, ....its also good to see that such an enterprise is inherently feeding the problems it points out so essentially once enough is said and done its enough and it can just sit there and speak for itself.

you know where to find me on RBEF...lol
